[REDACTED] a representative of the Argentine Socialist newspaper La Vanguardia was in Montevideo for the purpose of making arrangements to have that paper printed and distributed from there should the Argentine government's persecution completely suppress its publication in Argentina.

2. Source has reported that the editor of La Vanguardia has completed plans to move to Uruguay as soon as the expected governmental oppression becomes a certainty. From Montevideo it is planned to distribute La Vanguardia by airmail throughout Latin America in order to spread information concerning what the Socialists believe to be the disgraceful economic, political, and social situation in Argentina.
